

For Immediate Release:

San Diego, CA- De La Fuente Campaign HQ- Sitting down with the Major Opposition to the Trump Machine, De La Fuente told his audience, “The United States of America’s Founding Fathers would be astonished if they were here today. They fought tyranny. It seems we as a country have lost our way.”

An in-depth analysis of Mr. Trump’s campaign and candidacy from 2016 shows a strong similarity to Rocky De La Fuente’s current bid for the GOP General Election. Here are some of the similarities:

1. Both candidates have been active politically, however, had only served appointed positions and as delegates prior to being the rogue candidate for President.
2. Neither are Career Politicians.
3. Both share a passionate disdain for corruption and have spent their own money campaigning for the people, to give everyone a voice.
4. Neither believed (Trump has changed his opinion) that campaigns should be funded on the backs of hardworking Americans. They believe(d) in themselves as leaders.

Roque De La Fuente has recently ramped up his campaign teams and has begun internal polling. More than half of all Americans support impeachment of Trump. De La Fuente agrees. He went on the record to say, “The President told us in 2016 that he wanted eliminate corruption from D.C. and instead, he is using his office [and taxpayer money] to advance his own business. While I once supported him, it is clear that he no longer has the capacity to know right from wrong. Or he is knowingly/willingly abusing power. A De La Fuente Administration will stay firm in our resolve to serve and not to take-from our country’s workers. I come forward as a successful business person rather than one who has failed. I come to serve America and its [sometimes forgotten] values. Love of family, respect of diversity, respect of women, children, minorities, all ages, all ethnicities, all religions; and celebrate our differences.”

A quick look into the backgrounds of both major GOP candidates provides evidence that De La Fuente contrasts President Trump. Chief of Staff, Angela Fisher, reports, “Our candidate has made life choices and business decisions that are very different than the President. He has been successful in business beginning at 9 years of age. He has no history of infidelity or mistreatment of women. He unites. He leads. He is calm, collected, and brilliant. He believes in the American Dream.”

Roque “Rocky” De La Fuente is living proof that the American Dream can be achieved by those who are inspired to pursue it. He has an amazing record of success. From earning an FAA license to fly single engine planes at the age of 20 to owning 29 automobile dealerships and becoming Chairman of the National Dealers Council for the third largest automobile manufacturer in the world by the age of 28, he’s in a league by himself. He created a banking network in 1982 to help address Mexico’s economic crisis and established impressive real estate holdings throughout the United States while creating thousands of new jobs along the way. In 1992, Rocky became the first Hispanic American to serve as a Delegate-At-Large for the State of California at a National Convention. He holds a bachelor’s degree in Physics and Mathematics (Magna Cum Laude) and an honorary doctorate from UNESCO.
